

LIZA BETH JEWELRY

LizaBeth

LIZA BETH JEWELRY

Liza has an eye for design.

As a girl, Liza Soklove enjoyed countless hours browsing upscale shops in her native Philadelphia, where her distinct style was cultivated from an early age.

Liza moved to Austin, Texas in 2008 where she began beading for fun. Currently, with the success of Liza Beth Jewelry, she strives to support causes that are close to her heart: Hospice Austin, Seton Breast Care Center, Juvenile Diabetes Austin, Animal Organizations, PeopleFund and the Jewish Federation.

Liza Beth Jewelry launched in May 2012 when the naturally creative design spirit in Liza Soklove decided to pursue an unforeseen passion: jewelry design. Liza Beth Jewelry uniquely balances edge with delicacy, creating masterful pieces inspired by the casual but sophisticated Austin vibe. Locally handmade, each piece is an unexpected, nontraditional, and eclectic combination of diamonds and pearls on an exclusively custom-made oxidized steel chain.

The timeless designs include necklaces, bracelets, earrings, and rings featuring single cut conflict-free diamonds set in oxidized sterling silver or white, yellow and rose gold. Tahitian, South Sea, and freshwater pearls and semi-precious stones are also part of Liza Beth's collection. The signature vintage-inspired steel chain is exclusive to the Liza Beth line, allowing each piece to be loved and layered.

Credits

Jewelry Design

Liza Beth Soklove

Sales

info@lizabethjewelry.com

PR Inquiries

Suzanne Erickson // She-She Media + Design

suzanne@sheshemedia.com

Photography

Todd White // Editorial

Caitlin Leys // Product

Hair and Makeup

Kendra Stanton @citizensofbeauty

Lookbook Design

Ansley Walker

